

Hāna Education Center

The Hāna Education Center has been making higher education possible for the residents of the remote East Maui community since 1987. It is temporarily located on the Hāna High School campus. The center services early college, degree-seeking and community students. Both credit and non-credit courses are offered including in-person courses in Hāna as well online UH Maui College and UH system courses.

For information, call 808-248-7380.