

AG 265 : Horticulture of Hawaiian Plants

Explores the biology, ecology, and adaptations of plants focusing on endemic and indigenous Hawaiian and Polynesian introduced. Teaches techniques of horticulture including propagation, cultivation, and management. Introduces uses of plants in landscaping and native habitat restoration projects.

Credits 3

Lecture Hours 45

Teaching Equivalent 3.00

Designation

HI

DB

Prerequisites

AG 200 or BOT 105/HWST 211, either with grade C or better, or consent.

Corequisites

AG 265L.