

CM 105 : Storytelling: Find Your Voice in Creative Media

Introduces students to core Storytelling principles in commercial art and life, and inspires passion, focus, and commitment to craft. Students explore the nature of storytelling and storytellers in film, television, literature, music, spoken word, and more, and features artists and media professionals as guest speakers. Students apply what they learn by presenting stories in any of a number of forms which reflect their own unique voice.

Credits 3

Lecture Hours 45

Teaching Equivalent 3.00

Designation

DA