

GEO 101L: The Natural Environment Laboratory

Introduces the geographer's tools: globes, atlases, maps, and aerial photographs. Uses laboratory investigation techniques to understand concepts of physical geography. Special emphasis on Hawai'i and on human modification of the environment.

Credits: 1

Lab Hours: 45

Teaching Equivalent: 2.5

Prerequisites:

GEO 101 (or concurrent), or consent.

Program: Geography

Articulation Code: DY