

HWST 213 : Hawaiian Ethnozoology

Surveys and identifies Hawaiian fishes, birds, and other creatures, and their place in Hawaiian culture. Explores traditional methods of capture, practical uses, and conservation techniques. Uses Hawaiian terminology.

Credits 3

Lecture Hours 45

Teaching Equivalent 3.00

Designation

HI

DH

Prerequisites

HAW 101, or consent.