

ICS 171 : Introduction to Computer Security

Examines the essentials of computer security, including risk management, use of encryption, activity monitoring, intrusion detection; and the creation and implementation of security policies and procedures to aid in security administration.

Credits 3

Lecture Hours 45

Teaching Equivalent 3.00

Prerequisites

ICS 184 or ETRO 140, either with grade C or better(or concurrent), and ICS 169 with grade C or better, or consent.