ICS 200: Web Technology

Introduces web page authoring. Creates client-side web pages using web authoring language and style sheets. Uses graphical design elements, validation, browser capability, and accessibility. Uses scripting language to add dynamic elements to web pages, client-side scripting, regular expressions, event handling, input validation, selection, repetition, and parameter passing.

Credits 3
Lecture Hours 45
Teaching Equivalent 3.00
Prerequisites
ICS 110 with grade C or better, or consent.