

ICS 281 : Ethical Hacking

Studies the basic ethical hacking techniques also known as white hat hacking. It stresses the moral and legal issues about hacking and how these techniques can be used to defend against attacks as well as to perform authorized system security evaluation testing.

Credits 3

Lecture Hours 45

Teaching Equivalent 3.00

Prerequisites

Either ICS 184 or ETRO 140, and ICS 169, both with grade C or better, or consent.