ICS 360 : Database Design & Development

Provides detailed knowledge of database design and development. Explains data models, both relational and object oriented. Examines relational database management systems. Demonstrates database design and development using SQL. Explains client/server systems and web access to databases.
Credits 3
Lecture Hours 45
Teaching Equivalent 3.00
Prerequisites
ICS 320 with grade C or better, or consent.