

MGT 310 : Principles of Management

Introduces activities and skills needed to successfully manage both domestic and international organizations with an emphasis on decision-making. Includes communication, work motivation, group dynamics, leadership and organizational change, conflict, personality, and teamwork. Relates these concepts to performance, job satisfaction, and organizational commitment. (Letter grade only.)

Credits 3

Lecture Hours 45

Teaching Equivalent 3.00

Prerequisites

BUS 120 or SSM 202, either with grade C or better, or consent.