

NURS 366 : Advanced Cardio-Pulmonary Theory

Develops advanced nursing theory related to the care of clients and the support of significant others for clients with cardiopulmonary dysfunction. Focuses on anatomy, physiology and physical assessment of the cardiac and respiratory system. Application of the nursing process to specific cardiac and respiratory disorders. (Letter grade only.)

Credits 3

Lecture Hours 45

Teaching Equivalent 3.00

Prerequisites

NURS 230 with grade B or better, or licensed RN, or consent.