

Credit Load

Students are allowed to register for up to 18 credits. Starting the week before the first week of instruction, students may enroll for additional credits with approval of a counselor.