

AG 265: Horticulture of Hawaiian Plants

Explores the biology, ecology, and adaptations of plants focusing on endemic and indigenous Hawaiian and Polynesian introduced. Teaches techniques of horticulture including propagation, cultivation, and management. Introduces uses of plants in landscaping and native habitat restoration projects.

Credits: 3

Lecture Hours: 45

Teaching Equivalent: 3

Prerequisites:

AG 200 or BOT 105/HWST 211, either with grade C or better, or consent.

Co-Requisites:

AG 265L.

Program: Agriculture

Articulation Code: HI
DB