

ART 107: Introduction to Photography

Introduces the history of film and non-silver photography from its 19th century invention to its current practice as an art form. Students will learn the basics of film photography, including the proper use of a 35mm manual camera and the darkroom techniques of black and white photography.

Credits: 3

Program: Art

Lecture/Lab Hours: 90